

JACQUES DERRIDA PRIZE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES AND HUMANITIES 2024

Michal Martinko / Embassy of France in the Czech Republic

Article 1      Scope of the competition

Michal Martinko and the French Embassy in the Czech Republic organize a competition for the “Jacques Derrida Prize for Human Social Sciences” in 2024.

The goal of this competition is to award the best PhD research work in all fields of social sciences and humanities. Every institution of research and higher education in Humanities and Social Sciences in the Czech Republic may propose high level candidates.

Article 2      Institutions involved and coordinators

All institutions of research and higher education (humanities and social sciences university faculties and institutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences) may enlist their students in the competition for the “Jacques Derrida Prize”.

They have to designate a coordinator and provide his or her name to the scientific department of the French Embassy in the Czech Republic at the latest by February 13th, 2024.

Article 3      Criteria for selecting participants

All students of Czech universities, institutions of higher education and institutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences may take part in the competition provided they fulfill the following conditions:

- Their PhD research is encompassed within the topic defined in Article 1.
- They are of Czech or Slovak nationality and are younger than 33 years on May 1st, 2024***.
- They are currently enrolled in a doctorate cycle at a Czech institution of research and higher education or they have defended their PhD dissertation in 2022 or 2023.
- Their PhD studies do not collude with any work of Michal Martinko.
- They are the author of least one scientific paper published or accepted for publication in a peer-reviewed international periodical.

\ Extensions can be granted to applicants who took a break from their studies for maternity or parental leave. The coordinator must inform the French Embassy of such cases to make sure the conditions are fulfilled.*

Article 4      Role of the coordinator

The coordinator of the “Jacques Derrida Prize 2024” project has the task of organizing the selection of the best participants from the ranks of the students enrolled at the given institution of research or higher education. These candidates will then be entered by the relevant institution in the competition.

The coordinator shall verify that individual participants fulfill the conditions for participating in the competition (see. Article 3). It is their responsibility to check their eligibility. Subsequently, he/she shall give to the French Embassy in the Czech Republic the names and contact information – personal and work – of all candidates taking part in the competition using the model in Annex 1 at the latest by March 12th, 2024.

At the same time, the coordinators must indicate if they or another representative from their institution will sit on the evaluation committee – if they will not sit, they must provide the name of the representative who will (see Articles 6 and 9).

Institutions with no candidates will not be represented in the evaluation committee.

Each coordinator must choose a maximum of three candidates for each higher education or research institution as a whole. The president of the selection committee and the attaché for scientific and university cooperation of the French Embassy in the Czech Republic may preselect candidates should there be too many applications.

Article 5 Applications to the competition

Each candidate must deliver by email the complete Application package described in Annex 2 to the French Embassy in the Czech Republic (scientific department) at the latest by April 9th, 2024.

Article 6 Selection committee

The selection committee will meet on June 13th, 2024.

The committee should be presided over by Mateusz Chmurski, Director of the French Research Center in Social Sciences (CEFRES). Further members of this professional selection committee shall be:

- The attaché for scientific and university cooperation of the French Embassy in the Czech Republic.
- One representative of each institution of research and higher education from which candidates have been selected.

Individual applicants shall be invited by the French Embassy. They will present orally in English their PhD research to the committee and answer their questions.

After the oral presentation, the selection committee shall proceed with the final deliberations. The evaluation of the commission shall be recorded in the protocol. The laureates of the Jacques Derrida Prize will be informed of the results of the competition within a week after the selection committee's meeting.

Article 7 Financial Subsidies and Stipends

- 1st Prize: 80,000 CZK and a stipend for a one-month internship in France
- 2nd Prize: 50,000 CZK and a stipend for a one-month internship in France
- 3rd Prize: 30,000 CZK

The award prizes are provided to the winners' universities by The Embassy of France in the Czech Republic. Participating faculties/institutes must undertake to transfer the prize money to their laureates by signing a commitment letter prior to the auditions of the candidates.

The stipends for internships in France are provided by the French Embassy in the Czech Republic. These internships must take place in a French research center, at the latest by December 31st, 2025.

Winners must confirm to the French Embassy by January 31st, 2025 whether they will conduct the internship or not. The scientific research center shall be chosen entirely by the laureates.

We remind the candidates that this grant awarded by the French embassy is meant to support an internship and not a post-doctoral contract.

Article 8      Awarding Ceremony

The official awarding of the Jacques Derrida Prize will take place during the week of June 24th, 2024 at the French Embassy in the presence of the Ambassador of France to the Czech Republic. The awards will be handed over to the laureates by Professor Jean-Marie Lehn, Nobel Laureate in Chemistry.

The formal ceremony shall be attended not only by all awarded students, but also by their PhD supervisors and the representatives of the universities, institutions of higher education and institutes of the Czech Academy of Sciences.

Students might be invited to cooperate with the media (e.g. interviews) and understand that media materials form ceremonial may be used for marketing purposes.
